

Gentlemen, I would like to see Indiana's laws concerning telephone privacy to not be affected by your decisions. I work at night and prefer to not be receiving phone solictations during the day. I would prefer to receive any sollicitations in my mailbox which does not ring and wake me up. Since taking advantage of the Indiana law, I have rarely recieved these phone calls!